OUR COLLEGE

SNDP Yogam Sathabdi Smaraka College is established in the year 2002 as a historical monument to the centenary celebration of SNDP Yogam. The college is formed to fulfill the vision of SREE NARAYANAGURU the great Philosopher and Social reformer. The College strives for the eradication of all traces of casteism, communalism, provincialism and sectarianism from the mind of students. It is our prime concern to empower the young men and women who join in our college with the kind of creativity, leadership qualities combined with traditional values and managerial skill that 21st century world of technology would anticipate. This college is mainly an academic institution which is justifiably proud of its activities. Class room discussion, group discussion, test papers, terminal examinations, seminar, debates, communicative English are our priorities. The college also gives great importance for cultural and social activities for the overall development of students personality. The students will have a rewarding and enjoyable experience during their study period in this college. Now the college occupies a remarkable position in the field of higher education by its achievements.
